

2007 Fall Craft Fair

Crafters were selling everything from quilts and sweaters to artwork and stained glass. Exhibitors also did a terrific job of decorating their tables in fall colours.

Hundreds of people visited Hazelwood Lake Centre throughout the day. Some also used the opportunity to explore the Conservation Area's many trails.

John and Carole Grabish, also known as the Crafty Pair remain popular exhibitors at the annual event.

The Craft Fair would not be possible without the help of volunteers like Doug Guinn and Garry Maxwell. Other volunteers from the Lakehead Conservation Foundation included Darlene Guinn and Mary Provenzano along with friends Kate Maxwell and Josie Nigro.
